Prelude	Te Deum	Marc-Antoine Charpentier Jason Park, trumpeter and Reiko Oda Lane, organist
Welcome and Lighting of the Chalice		Rev. Vanessa Rush Southern & Rev. Laura Shennum
*Carol	O come, all ye faithful	Words from Hymns of the Spirit, Universalist Hymnal, 1937

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye, to Bethlehem.
Come and behold Him, born the King of angels;

Refrain: venite, adoremus, venite, adoremus, venite adoremus Dominum

Lo, humble shepherds, hasting to his cradle,
Leaving their flocks in the fields, draw near.
We too, with gladness, thither bend our footsteps.

Refrain

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation;
Sing, all ye citizens of heav'n above!
Glory to God, all glory in the highest;

Refrain

*Carol Hark! The Herald Angels Sing descant/arr. David Willcocks, Felix Mendelssohn
UUSF Choir, Mark Sumner director; Jason Park, trumpeter; Reiko Oda Lane, organist

Hark! The herald angels sing, "Glory to the newborn King;
Peace on earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!"
Joyful all ye nations rise, join the triumph of the skies;
With angelic hosts proclaim, "Christ is born in Bethlehem!"
Hark! The herald angels sing, "Glory to the newborn King!"

Hail the heaven-born Prince of peace! Hail the son of righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings, risen with healing on his wings;
Mild he lays his glory by, born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth, born to give them second birth
Hark! The herald angels sing, "Glory to the newborn King!"

Reading The Gospel of Luke 2:8-20

*Carol We Three Kings of Orient Are

We three kings of Orient are; bearing gifts we traverse afar, field and fountain, moor and mountain, following yonder star.

(Chorus)

O Star of wonder, star of light, star, with royal beauty bright, westward leading, still proceeding, guide us through this perfect night.

Frankincense to offer have I, incense owns a Deity nigh.
Prayer and praising, all are raising, worship God most high.

(Chorus)

Myrrh is mine, its bitter perfume breathes a life of gathering gloom; sorrowing, sighing, bleeding, dying, sealed in the stone-cold tomb.

(Chorus)

Born a babe on Bethlehem's plain, gold I bring to crown him again, love forever, ceasing never, in our hearts to reign.

(Chorus)

Homily

Offering

Our offering this evening will go to Up on Top, an organization that was started by this congregation in response to a need that emerged for the families in the community. Although it is now an independent organization, its offices are housed here and members of this community serve on its Board as they always have. Even and especially in Covid, Up on Top has provided vital support for children in our neighborhood, critical to their academic achievement and social resilience, and to their families ability to work. There is more information in your order of service and online. We thank you, in advance, for widening the circle of love and generosity tonight, to children and families you may never meet. To make a donation on Vanco (bit.ly/uusfpayments) or using the Donate Button (below) & on our website, please select the "Offering" choice to make your gift. If you are sending a check, please mark in the memo today's date and "special offering" 12-24-22.

Handbell Offertory

Pat-a-Pan

Burgundian Carol arr. Barbara Kinyon
UUSF Handbell Choir, Reiko Oda Lane, Director

*Carol The First Nowell

The First Nowell the angel did say was to Certain poor shepherds, in fields as they lay, in Fields where they lay keeping their sheep, on a
 Cold winter's night that was so deep.

Nowell, No-well, Nowell, Nowell, born is the king of Israel.

They looked up and saw a star, shining
 In the east beyond them far, and
 To the earth it gave great light, and
 So it continued both day and night.

Nowell, No-well, Nowell, Nowell, born is the king of Israel.

And by the light of that same star, three Magi came from country far; to Seek a king was their intent, and to Follow the star wherever it went.

Nowell, No-well, Nowell, Nowell, born is the king of Israel.

Taking the Light with Us

Richard Davis-Lowell

*Recessional Carol Silent Night

Silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright round yon Virgin Mother and Child!
 Holy infant so tender and mild, sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night, shepherds quake at the sight, glories stream from heaven a-far,
 Heavenly hosts sing "Alleluia," sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night, child of God, love's pure light radiant beams from thy holy face,
 With the dawn of redeeming grace, sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.

Stille Nacht, heilige Nacht
 Alles schläft; einsam wacht
 Nur das traute hochheilige Paar.
 Holder Knabe im lockigen Haar,
 Schlaf in himmlischer Ruh! Schlaf in himmlischer Ruh!

*Secondary Recessional Congregational Carol Joy to the World!

Joy to the world! The child is come: let earth with praises ring.
Let every heart prepare him room and heaven and nature sing,
And heaven and nature sing, and heaven and heaven and nature sing.

Joy to the earth! Now gladness reigns: let hearts their songs employ,
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy, repeat, repeat, the sounding joy.

No more let sins and sorrows grow, nor thorns infest the ground.
Let righteousness, its glories show, as far as love is found,
As far as love is found, as far, as far as love is found.

UP ON TOP

SEASON'S GREETINGS!

For 21 years, UP ON TOP has provided after-school and summer programs for low-income San Francisco students and their families

While serving over 90 students this year, we expanded our literacy work with 826 Valencia, reinstated our Reading Buddy Program for our youngest learners, instituted a new STEM class with Randall Museum, offered private weekly tutoring sessions for all our students and began providing activities four evenings per week for neighborhood middle-school students. We also began offering fresh food support to UP ON TOP families four days per week!

BECAUSE OF YOU and your generous support,
UP ON TOP is able to help meet the substantially-increased needs of our community.

We would appreciate your continued financial and moral support this year so that we can assure that these hard-working students get the academic assistance they so desperately need, the in-person enrichment opportunities to develop their social experiences and the recreational activities to help keep them healthy and fit.

Thank you for your consideration. Wishing you wonderful and safe Holidays! - UP ON TOP

Grateful & Going Forward Joyfully: Christmas Day

December 25 Virtual-Only Service

“Grateful & Going Forward Joyfully: Christmas Day Virtual Service”
Sunday, December 25, 11:00 am Worship Service Livestream Only

Christmas Day will be a day of gratitude and joy as six Bay Area UU churches collaborate to create a virtual service only at 11AM. You can snuggle up in your favorite PJs and a warm beverage to reflect on blessings from this year and how they will carry you forward into the new year joyfully. Senior Minister Rev. Vanessa Rush Southern will host a virtual coffee hour after the service. Tenderloin Tessie will be feeding the hungry on Christmas Day, so the UUSF office and church will be closed to the public on the 25th.

Livestream: <https://bit.ly/dec25uu>

“Letting Go & Beginning Anew” Sunday, January 1, 2023

“Letting Go & Beginning Anew”
Sunday, January 1, 2023, 10:50 am, Worship Service Livestream (online and in-person)

Rev. Laura Shennum, Minister of Congregational Life, preaching

We will gather to reflect on our past year, then set intentions for the upcoming year. This will be ritualized through a Fire Communion.

Events, Meetings & Volunteer Opportunities (www.uusf.org/news)

Black, Indigenous, & People of Color Gathering - January 1 from 9:30 am to 10:50 am, Stebbins Room

The sacred space is open to our members and friends who are Black, Indigenous and People of Color. The meeting takes place by Zoom and in-person in the Stebbins Room on the first Sunday of every month often from 9:30-10:50am. If you are interested in attending or finding out more, please email bipoc@uusf.org. Please come join this space for joy, renewal, care and inspiration.

Sign Up to Volunteer for the Interfaith Food Pantry - Saturday, January 7 from 8:15 am to 11:15 am

Join a wonderful community of volunteers every Saturday to feed our lower income neighbors. UUSF is leading the pantry crew on January 7, so this is a great time to connect with other members. Meet at Old First Presbyterian (Van Ness and Sacramento) from 8:15 - 11:15 am (or come early at 7:30 to help unload the truck). We will distribute food to 315+ households. If this is your first time, please introduce yourself to UUSF Coordinator Hanna Hart at info@uusf.org. Sign-Up: <https://bit.ly/foodpantryuusf>
Website: <https://www.uusf.org/foodpantry>

Newcomer Orientation - Sunday, January 8 at 12:30 pm in the Fireside Room

Interested in learning more about Unitarian Universalism? Join us on January 8 after the service in the Fireside Room to meet some of our members and learn more about our congregation and Unitarian Universalism in the community. Questions? Email info@uusf.org

New UU: A Welcome Home - Sunday, February 12 at 12:30 pm at UUSF

Join our new Minister for Congregational Life Rev. Laura Shennum for our New UU class! Held in-person at UUSF after worship, this interactive class will introduce you to Unitarian Universalism and our congregation. Registration now open! Questions? Contact Joe Chapot (jchapot@uusf.org or call 415-590-7836) Register: <https://bit.ly/uusfnewuwwinter23>

Adult Spiritual Growth Classes (www.uusf.org/are)

Led by Rev. Vanessa Rush Southern, Senior Minister

This is a story of enduring the loss of a spouse and a sister (so it is about enduring profound grief) and it is about illness (Delia Ephron is diagnosed with cancer) and it is about love so good for Mid-February! It is very readable and my best friend makes a cameo appearance so read it and come.

There are two opportunities to participate, both on Zoom.

Wednesday, February 15, 6:30-8:00 pm or

Thursday, February 16, noon-1:30 pm

Register for this class at <https://bit.ly/uusfmbgfeb23>. For more information, please see our Adult Spiritual Growth Program webpage at <https://www.uusf.org/are>

If you need help acquiring the book or purchasing it, please let us know at info@uusf.org for help.

Morning Meditation

Tuesdays & Thursday, 8-8:30 am (<https://us04web.zoom.us/j/75735734442#success>)

A simple, centering loving kindness meditation practice which is appropriate for all religious backgrounds and levels of meditation

Equanimity Practice

Fridays, 8-8:30 am (<https://us04web.zoom.us/j/75735734442#success>)

A meditation practice on cultivating equanimity—that is, accepting the reality of life's highs and lows and developing an attitude of peaceful calm abiding throughout the inevitable changes.

Welcome to the First Unitarian Universalist Society of San Francisco

Since its founding in 1850 our congregation has been a beacon of religious liberalism in this city. During the Civil War, the Rev. Thomas Starr King credited with keeping California in the Union. He also challenged racism, raised millions for humanitarian relief and inspired new efforts in education.

Unitarianism and Universalism in America both arose in New England during the American Revolution. Because the roots of both traditions are in the Judeo-Christian tradition, you will see on the walls of our sanctuary two inscriptions:

"What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?" (from the Hebrew prophet Micah) and "The Kingdom of God is within you." (from the Gospels)

Our religious forebears were far more interested in the teaching examples of Jesus than in beliefs about Jesus. Today we agree more about how we strive to treat others than we do about beliefs. Our backgrounds and spiritual orientations are diverse. Among us are people who consider themselves atheists, agnostics, humanists, Christians, Jews, Buddhists, Muslims, Pagans and people guided by other forms of spirituality and belief.

Belief is many things, and so is disbelief. But we are interested in what happens to us when we open our minds to wider truth, our hearts to compassion, and our souls to the call to work for justice and peace.

OUR SOCIETY'S VISION

We, The First Unitarian Universalist Society of San Francisco, delight in our authentic, inclusive congregation that reaches across generations, ethnicities, and differences. We take care of one another, building spiritual community, knowing that we are stronger and accomplish more together. Guided by our responsibility to future generations, we take leadership in shaping a compassionate, sustainable world. Inspired by our courageous heritage and compelled by conscience, we hold one another accountable to work for racial, environmental, and economic justice and the dignity and rights of all.

OUR SOCIETY'S MISSION

As a vibrant, joyous, caring, inclusive community of diverse people, we create a nurturing space for spiritual growth and learning. Based on our shared values, we work together courageously and publicly for human rights, economic justice, and environmental salvation.
