

GLOBAL CONVERSATIONS AT UUSF

The UUSF Human Rights Working Group announces a new interactive discussion series beginning:

Sunday, September 10, 2023 at 12:30 – 2:00 pm

The purpose of this new program series is to discuss cultural, economic, political, historical, and scientific issues that affect the whole international community. Attendees will participate with questions and their own ideas. UUSF members and the general public are encouraged to participate and a facilitator will guide the process.

The programs beginning this September will take place after the UUSF Sunday Worship Service, and will offer a light lunch. A brief background statement on each topic will be circulated in advance of the topics to be discussed. Each session will begin with a speaker explaining and enlarging on the topic, followed by a general discussion and possible follow-up actions.

We are pleased to announce that long-time UUSF member Horst Bansner will chair this new series, and HRWG members will assist in this endeavor. We expect that topics will dwell on humanity's continuing quest for greater knowledge and insights that would benefit our increasingly complex and fragile global existence. .

The schedule for this coming Fall so far is as follows:

- Sept 10 Evolving Ireland, What is New? - Horst Bansner
- Oct 29 U.S. Capitalism/Imperialism: Any Alternatives? - Bruce Neuburger
- Nov 5 India's Narendra Modi: Democrat or Autocrat? – Chandru Murthi

Other events are "in the works" and your suggestions on topics are most welcome. Please contact us at <https://www.uusf.org/hrwg> to submit your ideas.
