Unison Chalice Lighting

   We light this chalice for the light of truth,
   the warmth of love,
   and the fire of commitment.
   We light this symbol of our faith
   as we gather together.
Brief Invitations

Meditation on Breathing

When I breathe in, I'll breathe in peace.
When I breathe out, I'll breathe out love.

Covenant

Love is the spirit of this church, and service is its prayer.
This is our great covenant: to dwell together in peace,
to seek the truth in freedom, and to help one another.

Doxology

TALLIS’ CANON

Ritual of Remembrance and Commitment

Spoken and Silent Meditation
Music  Where Do You Start?
Alan and Marilyn Bergman/Johnny Mandel
Asher Davison, bass; Mark Sumner, piano

Where do you start? How do you separate the present from the past? How do you deal with all the things you thought would last, that didn't last?
With bits of mem'ries scattered here and there, I look around and don't know where to start.
Which books are yours? Which tapes and dreams belong to you and which are mine? Our lives are tangled like the branches of a vine that intertwine. So many habits that we'll have to break and yesterdays we'll have to take apart.
One day there'll be a song or something in the air again to catch me by surprise and you'll be there again, a moment in what might have been.
Where do you start? Do you allow yourself a little time to cry or do you close your eyes and kiss it all goodbye?
I guess you try.
And though I don't know where and don't know when I'll find myself in love again, I promise there will always be a little place no one will see, a tiny part deep in my heart that stays in love with you.

Music  When She Loved Me from Toy Story 2 words and music Randy Newman
Brielle Marina Nielson, alto; Mark Sumner, piano

When somebody loved me, everything was beautiful. Ev'ry hour we spent together lives within my heart.
And when she was sad, I was there to dry her tears; and when she was happy, so was I, when she loved me.
Through the summer and the fall, we had each other, that was all. Just she and I together, like it was meant to be.
And when she was lonely, I was there to comfort her, and I knew that she loved me.
So the years went by; I stayed the same. But she began to drift away; I was left alone. Still I waited for the day when she'd say, “I will always love you.” Lonely and forgotten, never thought she'd look my way, and she smiled at me and held me just like she used to do, like she loved me when she loved me.
When somebody loved me, everything was beautiful. Ev'ry hour we spent together lives within my heart, when she loved me.
Reading

Music  Move On from Sunday in the Park with George    words and music Stephen Sondheim
Leandra Ramm, mezzo soprano; Ben Rudiak Gould, tenor; Mark Sumner, piano

Are you working on something new?
That is not like you, George.
You have many things…
Said by you, though, George…
And nor did I.
I did what I had to do:
Move on.
Stop worrying where you’re going…move on. If you can know where you’re going, you’ve gone. Just keep moving on.
I chose, and my world was shaken... so what? The choice may have been mistaken, the choosing was not. You have to move on.
Look at what you want, not at where you are, not at what you’ll be. Look at all the things you’ve done for me:
Opened up my eyes, taught me how to see, notice ev’ry tree….
Understand the light…..concentrate on now
I want to explore the light. I want to know how to get through, through to something new, something of my own.

Stop worrying if your vision is new. Let others make that decision….they usually do. You keep moving on.
Look at what you’ve done, then at what you want, not at where you are, What you’ll be. Look at all the things you gave to me.
Let me give to you something in return. I would be so pleased…..

We’ve always belonged together!
We will always belong together!

OFFERTORY

Our offering this morning will go to the SCW’s Scholarship Fund. Every year the Scholarship Committee assesses applicants’ qualifications and awards scholarships to San Francisco high school graduates and to continuing recipients, based on guidelines established by the Committee. 410 Surprised by Joy

1. Surprised by joy no song can tell, no thought can compass, here we stand to celebrate eternal love, to reach for one another's hand.

2. Beyond all other gifts is this, best gift, a-alone to mortals given; the love of parent, lover, friend attunes our hearts to bliss of heaven.

3. Faith, hope, and love here come alive; life's deepest

What's Coming Up? Ways to Connect in These Times

Anyone is welcome to join our community for our Virtual Coffee Hour, immediately following the Sunday Worship Service. Coffee not required.

Join the Sermon Discussion Group, led by Donald Mathussan, at Virtual Coffee Hour after church today. Let the host know if you want to join this group when you arrive at Coffee Hour.

Virtual Coffee Hour: Starts at 12:15 PM
Join via Zoom: https://zoom.us/j/725737157
Meeting ID: 725 737 157
Dial by Phone: +1-669-900-6833

Wish Guidance on Using Zoom?
There are a variety of ways you can learn how to connect through Zoom. The Church has prepared a Guide that explains the Zoom system, and all the basics you need to know in using the system. To access the Guide, click here. You can also access brief on-line tutorials on Zoom. To see an example of these tutorials (on how to join a Zoom meeting) click here.

During these times we want you to have our email information handy. Please reach out to your ministers for any reason -- you are having a hard time (or know someone who is); you have a great idea for our new version of shared life in these times (or know someone with skills we could use in this chapter of life together); and because you don’t know who to call about what’s on your mind. Keep these handy:

Please contact Rev. Alyson Jacks (ajacks@uusf.org) or Vanessa Southern (vrsouthern@uusf.org)

In spite of all the COVID-19 restrictions, members of the church continue offering Pastoral Care and support to one another. One of those groups is the Lay Chaplains (Jan Oringer, Liz Strand, Gino Fortunato, Linda Harris, and Marty Vanderlaan) have been joined this Summer by retired ministers Margot Campbell-Gross and John Buehrens. To contact this team, send an email to chaplains@uusf.org or telephone one of the lay chaplains. We will respond to your request and connect you to someone who can help. In providing care we often rely on a network of UUSF volunteers who have indicated they are available to help other members of the congregation. We wish to express our deep appreciation for the help of these volunteers.

The AIDS Epidemic Has Not Gone Away
Sunday, February 28 at 1:00 PM

While tremendous progress has been made in the US and other wealthy countries in the prevention and treatment of AIDS, the disease still ravages many marginalized communities and poorer countries. Shanthi Noriega has worked in many of these countries focusing on international programs, working with vulnerable populations including sex workers, men who have sex with men, and transgender persons across Africa, Latin America, and Southeast Asia. Shanti will share with us her experience working for close to a decade with the World Health Organization (WHO) where she supported the development of national guidelines for HIV programs and led a global survey program aimed at identifying gaps in HIV services. Childrens Multicultural Museum Art Show
March 2021

Children are invited to participate by submitting a photo of their own sidewalk chalk drawing! Yippee!!

How? Email a digital photo with the artists name to "flame@uusf.org" with the subject "Art Show March" by February 24. One photo per child; more than one child can contribute to a drawing. Submissions will be posted to the online CMM Chalk Gallery, joining other photos by the exhibit curator Andrei Glase.

Andrei is in charge of Childrens Multicultural Museum which was created in 1986 by childrens art advocates at the UU. The mission is to provide traditional art and cultural experiences for children 5 to 12 years and their parents. During the covid shelter art workshops and in-person exhibits have been paused.

Andrei’s interest in sharing and inspiring art has been nurtured by the art she found on her daily walks since March 2020. She photographed these anonymous drawings in the Arguello/Geary district of SF.

What sidewalk drawings can YOU contribute to the CMM chalk gallery?

Adult Religious Education Classes

Meditation is a practice where an individual uses a technique – such as mindfulness, or focusing the mind on a particular object, thought, or activity – to train attention and awareness, and achieve a mentally clear and emotionally calm and stable state.

UUSF has the great fortune to offer two meditation programs you can participate in at any time. They are lead by Elena Hanyo Perez, a member of UUSF, licensed acupuncturist, and lay minister with Bright Dawn Center for Oneness Buddhism.

Minister's Book Group: February
Feb. 24, 6:30-8 pm OR Thurs, Feb. 25, noon-1:30
Led by Rev. Vanessa Rush Southern

We will explore the life story of John Lewis, reading “Walking with the Wind: A Memoir of the Movement” by John Lewis and Michael D’Ors. This memoir was published in 2015. There is also one by Jon Meacham published more recently (“His Truth is Marching On”). Both were written with John Lewis as co-author. Both claim to mix biography with a history of the civil rights movement but one review said that “Walking with the Wind” leans more into the story of Lewis’ life. You can read either but we’ll focus on “Walking with the Wind”. It’s available in paperback! You can attend one of two identical sessions — either Wednesday, February 24th, 6:30-8 pm OR Thursday, February 25th, noon-1:30.

Join us for our 2nd Virtual Spirit Saturday on February 27. For our upcoming Spirit Saturday, we offer three exciting workshops led by Ministerial Intern Meg McGuire, church member Mari Magaloni (with a workshop specific for Black, Indigenous, People of Color members and friends), and Rev. Alyson Jacks, Associate Minister. Spirit Saturday is a fun way to meet members and friends of UUSF, and enjoy a Saturday morning learning together.

Body and Spirit
Max Participants: 15

Whether we’re still or in motion, silent or singing, alone or together, we’re always in our bodies. Join ministerial intern Meg McGuire for some simple embodied practices and reflection on our bodies and their integral role in spiritual practice, healing and collective transformation.

UU Quilting Bee
Max Participants: 10
Leader: Mari Magaloni
THIS WORKSHOP IS FOR PEOPLE WHO IDENTIFY AS BLACK, INDIGENOUS AND PEOPLE OF COLOR. Unitarian Universalism is like a big spiritual quilt. But its integrity is uncertain. The chill is getting in where the squares of BIPOC UU’s are missing. You are invited to the first in a series of BIPOC Quilting Bees in which we will begin the work of strengthening the quilt’s integrity by filling in the missing blocks and adding some much-needed color!

In this workshop we will explore what it means to move from being an invited guest at the Chancel table to being a host. How would your race and culture inform the configuration and expression of Unitarian Universalist worship services? Please have plenty of paper and something to write with. If you are inclined, bring colored pencils, crayons, etc.

Leader Mari Magaloni is first generation Mexican-American and an actor/comic whose work focuses on the impact that politics, tech and social issues have on the emotional life of the “every-person”.

I Do Believe
Max Participants: 10
Leader: Rev. Alyson Jacks
What is your personal credo? A credo expresses what you hold to be true in your heart. Think of it as your signature song! In Unitarian Universalism, we do not have a corporate credo, a statement of belief in which all are beholden. Rather, each person is invited to create their own credo, informed by our UU Principles and Purposes, and shaped by lived experience. In this workshop, we’ll reflect and create our own personal credos through writing and simple art activities, with time to share our reflections.
UU Theologies for Young Adults
Mondays
7:00 - 8:30pm
March 1 thru April 5

What even is theology? And why does it matter? How can co-creating Unitarian Universalist theologies support our growth and connection as individuals and as a community? Join ministerial intern Meg McGuire and young adult coordinator Joe Chapot for a six session class specifically for young adults. We’ll reflect on and explore our individual beliefs, values and commitments, and how they fit into Unitarian Universalism, both as it has been and as it could be. Mondays at 7pm, starting March 1st. Registration Required.

BAY AREA FOOD INSECURITY ON THE RISE!
NEED Help? Want to GIVE Help? BOTH?

Food insecurity is on the rise across the nation, including the Bay Area, as the continued COVID-19 pandemic affects jobs and reduces the access to healthy food by vulnerable seniors and individuals in quarantine. One study says that food insecurity has tripled in San Francisco in the past 6 months. If you are among this rising number of people and don’t know how to access healthy food, we are here to help:

To Get Help connecting with sources of free healthy food, contact our lay chaplaincy team at Chaplains@uusf.org

THE SAN FRANCISCO / MARIN FOOD BANK
NEEDS YOUR HELP!!!

In the past six months, his wonderful organization has almost doubled the number of households it serves to about 60,000 a month. Both the increase in the number of people served and the suggestion that those over 60 do not volunteer for safely reasons during the pandemic has produced a critical need for younger volunteers.

Questions? Email Rev. Jacks at ajacks@uusf.org

Join Revs. Jacks and Southern, and special guests, for a two session New UU class. This interactive class will introduce you to Unitarian Universalism and our congregation. If you don't have Zoom capability, there is a simple way to call in to participate.

Session One: A quick journey from Past to Present, Unitarian Universalist history and theology.
To understand where we are now culturally as a movement, in our philosophies and practices, and our place in the larger landscape of religious history, we'd like to give you an overview of some of the big sweeps of time and where Unitarian Universalism's roots began and where we find ourselves today. We will cover history, theology and a bit of what we call "polity" -- how we run ourselves and why we do it like that.

Session Two: First UU Society Past to Present
Along the same lines we'd like you to see the history of this particular congregation, its place in the life and history of San Francisco and California. What has been part of this life, and right now how does this congregation understand the work of spiritual growth, the call to social action, what are our worship traditions (and why are they the way they are), how do we connect and take care of each other, and what is entailed in being called "a member."
Wednesday Morning Vigils!
Wednesdays from 8AM-9AM at UUSF

After 4 years where lies, racial hatred, patriarchy and xenophobia have been promoted from the highest political levels in the land, the people are rightly hungry for science, truth, morality and a broad embrace of humanity.

We celebrate and want our presence to support the executive actions being taken by the Biden / Harris administration to address the damage that has been done and to move towards greater justice and accountability at the same time as we bear witness to how much remains to be done.

As we head into the Trump’s second impeachment hearing, we want congress to hold Trump accountable for the attacks on our democracy that he helped to orchestrate and to assure that he is never again allowed to hold political office.

We also want to continue to highlight as we have done weekly since July 2019 the continuing damage being done in our names by our country’s immigration system and the urgency of actions to reform this system. The parents of at least 628 children who were separated from their families at the border have still not been located causing massive ongoing trauma to these children and their families.

Adults are still locked up in less than transparent conditions and with increased risks to their health and lives by COVID-19 outbreaks in crowded prisons for the “crime” of seeking asylum and a better and safer life for themselves and their families.

We will celebrate with music that embodies our aspirations, and the resistance that is always part of getting there, as we vigil in front of the UUSF. Please join us.

Welcome to the First Unitarian Universalist Society of San Francisco

Since its founding in 1850 our congregation has been a beacon of religious liberalism in this city. During the Civil War, the Rev. Thomas Starr King was credited with keeping California in the Union. He also challenged racism, raised millions for humanitarian relief and inspired new efforts in education.

Unitarianism and Universalism in America both arose in New England during the American Revolution. Because the roots of both traditions are in the Judeo-Christian tradition, you will see on the walls of our sanctuary two inscriptions: “What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?” (from the Hebrew prophet Micah) and “The Kingdom of God is within you.” (from the Gospels)

Our religious forebears were far more interested in the teaching examples of Jesus than in beliefs about Jesus. Today we agree more about how we strive to treat others than we do about beliefs. Our backgrounds and spiritual orientations are diverse. Among us are people who consider themselves atheists, agnostics, humanists, Christians, Jews, Buddhists, Muslims, Pagans and people guided by other forms of spirituality and belief.

Belief is many things, and so is disbelief. But we are interested in what happens to us when we open our minds to wider truth, our hearts to compassion, and our souls to the call to work for justice and peace.

For more about our congregation, please visit our website at www.uusf.org.
