Unison Chalice Lighting

We light this chalice for the light of truth,
the warmth of love,
and the fire of commitment.
We light this symbol of our faith
as we gather together.

Ways to Connect in These Times

Wish Guidance on Using Zoom?

There are a variety of ways you can learn how to connect through Zoom. The Church has prepared a Guide that explains the Zoom system, and all the basics you need to know in using the system. To access the Guide, click here. You can also access brief on-line tutorials on Zoom To see an example of these tutorials (on how to join a Zoom meeting) click here.

During these times we want you to have our email information handy. Please reach out to your ministers for any reason -- you are having a hard time (or know someone who is); you have a great idea for our new version of shared life in these times (or know someone with skills we could use in this chapter of life together); and because you don't know who to call about what's on your mind. Keep these handy:

Please contact Rev. Alyson Jacks (ajacks@uusf.org) or Vanessa Southern (vrsouthern@uusf.org)

In spite of all the COVID-19 restrictions, members of the church continue offering Pastoral Care and support to one another. One of those groups is the Lay Chaplains (Jan Oringer, Liz Strand, Gino Fortunato, Linda Harris, and Marty Vanderlaan) have been joined this Summer by retired ministers Margot Campbell-Gross and John Buehrens. To contact this team, send an email to chaplains@uusf.org or telephone one of the lay chaplains. We will respond to your request and connect you to someone who can help. In providing care we often rely on a network of UUSF volunteers who have indicated they are available to help other members of the congregation. We wish to express our deep appreciation for the help of these volunteers.

Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz's Discusses Her New Book!

Sunday Forum, March 7 at 1:00 PM

We are pleased to present acclaimed author, Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz, at our UUSF Zoom Forum on Sunday, March 7 at 1:00 PM. She will discuss her latest book, Not A Nation of Immigrants: Settler Colonialism, White Supremacy, and a History of Erasure and Exclusion

Many Americans, regardless of party affiliation, whether in political debates or discussions about immigration, proudly state that we are a nation of immigrants. In this bold new book, historian Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz asserts this ideology is harmful and dishonest because it serves to mask and diminish the US's history of genocide, white supremacy, slavery, and structural inequality, all of which we still grapple with today.

While some of us are immigrants or descendants of immigrants, others are descendants of those who were here since time immemorial and others are descendants of those who were kidnapped and forced here against their will. This acclaimed author suggests that we need to stop believing and perpetuating this simplistic and a historical idea and urges readers to embrace a more complex and honest history of the United States.

Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz grew up in rural Oklahoma in a tenant farming family. She has been active in the international Indigenous movement for more than 4 decades and is known for her lifelong commitment to national and international social justice issues. Dunbar-Ortiz is the winner of the 2017 Lannan Cultural Freedom Prize, and is the author or editor of many books, including An Indigenous Peoples' History of the United States, a recipient of the 2015 American Book Award. She lives in San Francisco. Not A Nation of Immigrants is scheduled to be released in August 2021 by Beacon Press.

UUSF MEDITATION MINISTRY

Adult Religious Education Classes

Meditation is a practice where an individual uses a technique – such as mindfulness, or focusing the mind on a particular object, thought, or activity – to train attention and awareness, and achieve a mentally clear and emotionally calm and stable state.

UUSF has the great fortune to offer two meditation programs you can participate in at any time. They are lead by Elena Hanyo Perez, a member of UUSF, licensed acupuncturist, and lay minister with Bright Dawn Center for Oneness Buddhism.

BAY AREA FOOD INSECURITY ON THE RISE! NEED Help? Want to GIVE Help? BOTH?

Food insecurity is on the rise across the nation, including the Bay Area, as the continued COVID-19 pandemic affects jobs and reduces the access to healthy food by vulnerable seniors and individuals in quarantine. One study says that food insecurity has tripled in San Francisco in the past 6 months. If you are among this rising number of people and don't know how to access healthy food, we are here to help:

To Get Help connecting with sources of free healthy food, contact our lay chaplaincy team at Chaplains@uusf.org

THE SAN FRANCISCO / MARIN FOOD BANK NEEDS YOUR HELP!!!

In the past six months, his wonderful organization has almost doubled the number of households it serves to about 60,000 a month. Both the increase in the number of people served and the suggestion that those over 60 do not volunteer for safety reasons during the pandemic has produced a critical need for younger volunteers.

Leader: Rev. Vanessa Rush Southern & Lori Lai

Our book this month is “Minor Feelings: An Asian American Reckoning” by Cathy Park Hong. Hong, a prize-winning poet and Professor at Rutgers University in their MFA Program, weaves a book that is part memoir and part cultural criticism. She uses her own story to look into racial consciousness in America today. Published in 2020 the book has a contemporary perspective on Korean American immigrants, with the voice of a poet guiding the journey.

Vanessa Southern and Lori Lai will co-lead this Book Group which you can join either on Wednesday, 3/24 from 6:30-8 PM or Thursday, 3/25 from noon-1:30.

ART AT OUR FEET

Childrens Sidewalk Art During the Shelter at Home

Childrens Multicultural Museum Art Show

March 2021

Feel like you want to escape?

If you have chalk and a sidewalk area you can make your mark!

Wander through these photos of dogs and houses, cats and imaginary creatures, flowers, rainbows and suns, and spaceships at a stellar spaceport, and more! Curator Andrei Glase photographed these anonymous drawings in her neighborhood; they are combined here with photos submitted by children of the UU community of their own drawings.

Childrens Multicultural Museum was created in 1986 by children's art advocates at the UU. The mission is to provide traditional art and cultural experiences for children 5 to 12 years and their parents. There is no museum building, but there is lack of funds. And a collection of innovative creations using multicultural themes, recycled materials and children's imaginations.

In the before times our program served children in the Tenderloin, Civic Center and Chinatown areas with monthly workshops, summer sessions, an annual holiday display at SF Davies Symphony Hall, and exhibitions at the Fisher children's center of the Civic Center Main Library and at the UU Kings Galleries. Our annual UU show included an art making reception for kids; today we are replacing that in-person experience with this online art show. During the covid shelter art workshops and in-person exhibits have been paused. We plan to continue our program as we can. Contact the curator andreiglase@gmail.com or by mail at CMM, 1849 Geary Blvd #15371, SF CA 94115.

With the decline of art education it is just so essential to do what we can to encourage our young creative minds with individual and community art projects. Art is about making decisions ... so you want to sketch something without knowing exactly what the final picture will be? Make a little decision to see art all around. Watch out -- art may be right at your feet! View the flier here!

Wednesday Morning Vigils!

Wednesdays from 8AM-9AM at UUSF

After 4 years where lies, racial hatred, patriarchy and xenophobia have been promoted from the highest political levels in the land, the people are rightly hungry for science, truth, morality and a broad embrace of humanity.

We give public and visual support especially to those progressive executive actions and proposed legislation by the Biden / Harris administration that address the injustices so stark in our society. This includes the proposal for immigration reform to grant rights, long overdue, to our immigrant brothers and sisters.

On the street at morning rush hour we see clearly the overwhelming contribution of immigrant workers to our economy. We greet construction workers, cooks, housekeepers, truck drivers, plumbers, carpet layers, elder care and childcare workers, roofers, gardeners, landscapers, janitors and many others on their way to work.

And, we celebrate with music that embodies our aspirations, and the resistance that is always part of the struggle for justice.

Join us in front of UUSF, Franklin & Geary. Each Wednesday morning from 8 to 9 AM. (Masks and social distancing required) Let us know what you think at neveragain@uusf.org.

Welcome to the First Unitarian Universalist Society of San Francisco

Since its founding in 1850 our congregation has been a beacon of religious liberalism in this city. During the Civil War, the Rev. Thomas Starr King was credited with keeping California in the Union. He also challenged racism, raised millions for humanitarian relief and inspired new efforts in education.

Unitarianism and Universalism in America both arose in New England during the American Revolution. Because the roots of both traditions are in the Judeo-Christian tradition, you will see on the walls of our sanctuary two inscriptions: "What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?" (from the Hebrew prophet Micah) and "The Kingdom of God is within you." (from the Gospels)

Our religious forebears were far more interested in the teaching examples of Jesus than in beliefs about Jesus. Today we agree more about how we strive to treat others than we do about beliefs. Our backgrounds and spiritual orientations are diverse. Among us are people who consider themselves atheists, agnostics, humanists, Christians, Jews, Buddhists, Muslims, Pagans and people guided by other forms of spirituality and belief.

Belief is many things, and so is disbelief. But we are interested in what happens to us when we open our minds to wider truth, our hearts to compassion, and our souls to the call to work for justice and peace.
