Welcome to Worship!

UUSF no longer requires masks indoors on our premises,
following the lead of the San Francisco Department of Health.

We do, however, strongly recommend people to wear masks or do anything else that protects and respects their own health and comfort.
There is a designated mask-only area on the far right side of the Sanctuary.

Stay Engaged: Explore Our Busy Hand Activity Station

Did you know we have a busy hand activity station at the back of the sanctuary for all ages?

You can find fidget toys, coloring, and so much more.

Check it out if you need something to keep your hands busy during the service.

Please return items before you leave the sanctuary.

Cooper, is a pediatric cardiologist who has dedicated his career to helping Palestinian children through the non-profit HEAL Palestine.

The Pagan Interest Circle Invites You Into Our Full Moon Ritual Circle, Saturday, March 15th, 2025, at 6:45 PM in the Chapel. We Gather to Invoke Persephone Before We Emerge From the Shadows and Welcome Spring

The Full Moon rises at 11:58 PM PDT on March 13th, bringing a Total Lunar Eclipse. The moon is in earth's shadow. Traditionally, lunar eclipses are not a good time to engage in intention-setting or spell work. They are portals of change, release, and chaos. Instead we are asked to observe what is within ourselves and what is around us. The earth casts its shadow on the full moon. These past few months we seem to be living, in Jungian terms, in a collective shadow-time. This full moon is shortly followed by the spring equinox, Ostara, whose themes are new life and balance. Persephone emerges from the Underworld at Ostara as the Goddess of Spring. Let's discover what She can teach us about living in, then emerging from, the Shadows. We will make personal Persephone talismans to hold and carry Her energy in our day-to-day lives. Please bring any objects you may associate with Persephone to place on Her altar. As always, finger food or a non-alcoholic beverage to share after the ritual is most welcome. Any questions? Contact Christine Patch-Lindsay at cplhealer@comcast.net or text (415) 424-6964.

An Inconvenient Reality: Reflections on the Civil Rights Movement, and America's History of Racism with Jeff Pekrul. Sunday Forum, March 16, 9:30 am, TSK Room and on Zoom.

A light breakfast will be available beginning at 9:00 a.m. - More info at <https://www.uusf.org/forum>

I participated in a Civil Rights group tour in February 2025. The organizers called this "a trip every American should take," and I agree because I have a new understanding of our country's history. The organizers arranged for us to meet with people involved in important events like school desegregation in Little Rock, the Freedom Rides, and the march from Selma to Montgomery. I feel truly privileged to have met them and learned from them, and I would like to share some of that in this talk. Jeff Pekrul is a member of UUSF, a co-chair of the Human Rights Working Group, and a part-time activist for social justice causes.

Unlock Your Tech Skills: Join Our Training on March 16 in the TSK Room

Join us for a tech training on March 16 at 12:30pm in the TSK room. Open to all in the UUSF community, it covers Zoom, Google Drive, UUSF AV carts, and basic sound troubleshooting. Hosted by Alicia Cover and Gino Fortunato. No RSVP needed.

A GUIDE FOR NEWCOMERS: What to Expect During Worship (read at <https://bit.ly/newcomersguide-uusf>)

March: Trust

In her poem “Trust the People,” adrienne maree brown emphasizes the importance of trust in building connections and fostering community. She encourages us to trust those who feel like home, allow us to rest, and inspire us with their capabilities. Trust deepens through shared experiences, even in the face of breaches, and is essential for personal growth and emotional expression. This month, the theme “The Practice of Trust” invites us to engage in various activities that explore trust, including discussions, worship services, and creative expression. By leaning into trust, we can overcome fear and anxiety, enriching our lives and relationships. Participants are encouraged to reflect on their own experiences with trust and find ways to engage with the theme both individually and collectively.

Poem of the Month Something Constant Drawing Near

By Robert Lavett Smith

March is a mentor we must learn to trust—
The greening threshold of the ancient year
When soil revives and skies abruptly clear,
Seeds struggle into sunlight, as they must.
We feel within ourselves that upward thrust,
That sense of something constant drawing near,
Something whose steadiness allays our fear,
Its gifts ubiquitous but not discussed.
How confidently spring makes promises
The Steller’s jays seem certain it will keep;
This season means exactly what it says.
Our eyes turn skyward yet our roots go deep;
What lies ahead is anybody’s guess,
But, for the moment, we are done with sleep.

Minister’s Book Group

The Serviceberry: Abundance and Reciprocity in the Natural World by Robin Wall Kimmerer

Wednesday, March 19, 6:30-8:00 pm (Zoom)

Led by Rev. Vanessa Rush Southern

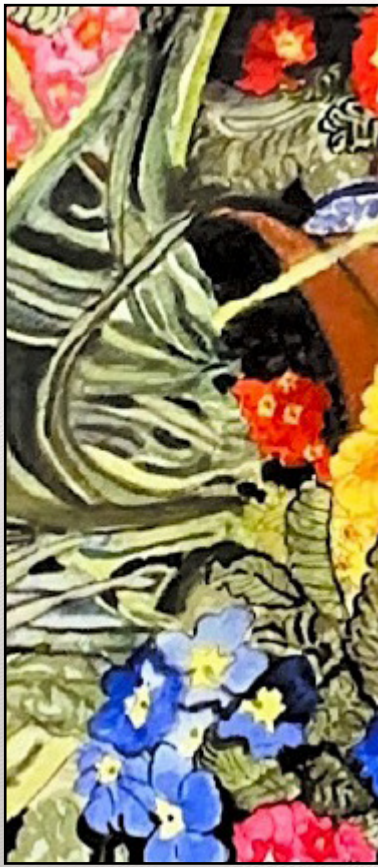

In this month when we kick off our annual giving pledge drive and talk and think more about generosity, wealth, and how the world of resources comes to us and what it does to and for us, how it is a blessing and an invitation, and how we even pervert our understanding of resources, wealth, and our own well-being, we have Robin Wall Kimmerer and the noble serviceberry to reground us. Her newest book is small; the themes are familiar to those who have read Braiding Sweetgrass, and it is medicine for the soul.

OUR SOCIETY'S VISION

We, The First Unitarian Universalist Society of San Francisco, delight in our authentic, inclusive congregation that reaches across generations, ethnicities, and differences. We take care of one another, building spiritual community, knowing that we are stronger and accomplish more together. Guided by our responsibility to future generations, we take leadership in shaping a compassionate, sustainable world. Inspired by our courageous heritage and compelled by conscience, we hold one another accountable to work for racial, environmental, and economic justice and the dignity and rights of all.

OUR SOCIETY'S MISSION

As a vibrant, joyous, caring, inclusive community of diverse people, we create a nurturing space for spiritual growth and learning. Based on our shared values, we work together courageously and publicly for human rights, economic justice, and environmental salvation.

CONGREGATIONAL COVENANT (under construction)

In an effort to make the world a better place, we support each other's journey to seek truth with openness, curiosity and respect for different perspectives and paths.

As love is our spirit, we commit to respect, accept, listen to and support each other.

We hold ourselves and each other accountable by continually assessing our individual and community actions toward living into our covenant. This will include speaking up when someone's actions are not aligned.

We commit to be in community with openness and loving kindness, acknowledging our own biases and differing perspectives.

We welcome the newcomer, we commit to building trust with each other, we celebrate differences and make space for repair when harm occurs.
