A Guide for Newcomers! - What to Expect During Worship (read at <https://bit.ly/newcomersguideuusf>)

Welcome to Worship!

UUSF no longer requires masks indoors on our premises, following the lead of the San Francisco Department of Health.

We do, however, strongly recommend people to wear masks or do anything else that protects and respects their own health and comfort.
There is a designated mask-only area on the far right side of the Sanctuary.

Stay Engaged: Explore Our Busy Hand Activity Station
Did you know we have a busy hand activity station at the back of the sanctuary for all ages?
You can find fidget toys, coloring, and so much more.
Check it out if you need something to keep your hands busy during the service.
Please return items before you leave the sanctuary.

We light this chalice for the light of truth,
the warmth of love,
and the fire of commitment.
We light this symbol of our faith
as we gather together.

Offering

Today's offertory will be for Thomas Brown's Memorial Reception. Thomas Brown served UUSF for over 30 years. Holding the building and our hearts. Caring for those less fortunate and creating meals that fed bodies and spirits. To make a donation on Vanco (bit.ly/uusfpayments), using the Donate Button on our website, or by scanning the QR code below, please select the line for Special Sunday Offerings. The designation is important to ensure your gift gets applied correctly. If you are sending a check, please mark in the memo today's date, 12-28-25.

Thomas Brown Memorial Reception

Today's offertory is dedicated to Thomas Brown's Memorial Reception, honoring his over 30 years of service to UUSF, where he cared for the less fortunate and creating meals that fed bodies and spirits. We are all saddened by his passing, and his memorial service is scheduled for January 3rd in New Orleans. To express our love and gratitude, First UU Society of San Francisco will sponsor the catering for the reception following the service. More details will be available in the weekly Flame Newsletter. Donations can be made online (bit.ly/uusfpayments) or by check to the "Minister's Discretionary Fund," noting they are in honor of Thomas Brown. We will share information about whether the service was recorded once available. Thank you for your support of his family and this event.

Offertory Update

Last Sunday we raised $518 for the Children's Book Project.
The Children's Book Project gives books to children who need them for literacy, learning, and life.

Events, Meetings & Volunteer Opportunities (www.uusf.org/news)

Join Gavrilah Wells on Sunday, December 28 at 9:30 am for our Sunday Forum to learn about Amnesty International's Write for Rights Campaign. This global initiative encourages individuals to write letters advocating for those unjustly imprisoned and to demand justice for human rights abuses. Participate by bringing international stamps and postcards, and help make a difference through collective grassroots action! <https://www.uusf.org/forum>

The Environmental Justice Working Group has rescheduled its monthly meetings to the 4th Sunday of each month. The December 28th meeting is canceled due to a lack of facilitator, but the next meeting will take place on January 25 from 12:30 to 1:15 pm in Fahs, focusing on planning the 2026 Earth Day event. Everyone is invited to join, share ideas, and volunteer for projects.

Join Rev. Ranwa Hammamy on Sunday, January 4, 2026, at 10:50 am for a thought-provoking sermon titled "Sustaining Love in the Struggle." As a Congregational Justice Organizer with the UUA's Side With Love team, Rev. Hammamy will explore the nourishing aspects of resistance.

New to this community? New to Unitarian Universalism? - Sunday, January 4, 12:30 pm in Fireside Room. Newcomers are welcome to join us after the service to meet some of our members and learn more about our congregation and Unitarian Universalism. It's a great chance to meet other folks in the community, ask any questions you might have, and find out how to get involved in our programs and ministries. Free childcare is available to attendees who need it. We look forward to meeting you!

Join Betsy Darr for the "Simply Pray" class, running Tuesdays from January 6-27, 7-8:30 pm in the Kincaid room. This four-session course will explore the meanings of prayer for Unitarian Universalists and introduce various prayer practices to enhance your spiritual life. Participants will engage with questions about the purpose and audience of prayer, allowing for personal theological interpretations. The class is inspired by Eric Walker Wikstrom's book, "Simply Pray," with some copies available for borrowing. Space is limited to 10 participants, so please commit to attending all sessions. Register at <https://t.ly/Simply-Pray>.

Join the UUSF Men's Breakfast Group every Saturday at 9:00 AM for meaningful discussions and sharing. The group alternates between in-person and online meetings via Zoom, fostering a supportive environment for deeper connections. Check-ins kick off each session, allowing members to express their feelings and insights. New members are always welcome to join this enriching experience. For more details and to participate, visit: <https://www.uusf.org/breakfast>.

Join us on Sunday, January 11 at 9:30 am in the TSK Room or on Zoom for a forum featuring District 2 Supervisor Stephen Sherrill. Enjoy a light breakfast starting at 9:00 am as Stephen discusses his initiatives to enhance public safety, support small businesses, and improve neighborhoods in San Francisco. This event will also include a Q&A session, providing an opportunity to engage directly with our district supervisor.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Join the Craft the Theme Small Group held on the 2nd Sunday of each month after service in the Children's Art Room. Engage creatively with the monthly "Soul Matters" theme using various craft materials—no artistic skills required! This group offers flexibility with no full-year commitment needed, but please RSVP to help with planning. Feel free to bring your own supplies, as some will be provided. For questions, reach out to Debbie Wu at debbiestuff@icloud.com.

Join the Elder Wisdom Group on the second Wednesday of each month from 12 pm to 2 pm, facilitated by Rev. Laura Shennum. This gathering invites senior citizens to discuss topics that matter to them while enjoying a light lunch. No registration is required, making it easy to participate. For more details, reach out to Rev. Laura at lushennum@uusf.org

Starting in the new year, the TSK room will feature a book corner where you can take free books. This will be available most Sundays after the service. Don't miss the opportunity to pick up a great book.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP!

If you're new, please familiarize yourself with the guidance and support available on Sundays below. If you have any questions, an usher, greeter, or member of staff will be happy to help.

COVID-19: UUSF no longer requires masks indoors on our premises, following the lead of the San Francisco Department of Health. We do, however, encourage people to wear masks or do anything else that protects and respects their own health and comfort. There is a designated mask-only area on the far right side of the Sanctuary.

If you feel unwell, please stay home and enjoy the service at home via livestream. (bit.ly/uusfmedia)

BUSY HANDS: Explore our Busy Hands activity station located at the back of the sanctuary. You will find things like fidget toys and coloring for all ages to help you keep your hands busy during service. Please return items before leaving the sanctuary.

CHILDREN/YOUTH: All ages are welcome in the Sanctuary for service. Children/youth and their parents/guardians are invited to sit together in the first few rows of pews. Most Sundays, we also offer a variety of age-specific programming; turn to the back of the Order of Service for today's offerings.

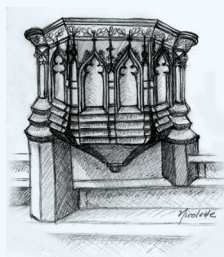

PETS: If you came with your pet, there is a pet-friendly section on the furthest section on the left toward the front of the sanctuary. To read our new dog policy (as of July 2025), visit <https://bit.ly/uudogpolicy>.

HEARING ASSISTANCE DEVICE: We can provide hearing assistance devices for the service. These are with the ushers in the back of the sanctuary, who will help you get oriented and comfortable with one.

CANDLES: In Unitarian Universalism we light candles to recognize sacred time, honor loved ones, mark important life events, and more. If you have something on your mind for which you'd like to light a candle, you are invited to come forward and light one silently during service.

SOCIAL HOUR: Everyone is welcome and invited to join us at social hour after service. This is normally in the courtyard (when weather permits) or in our Thomas Starr King room at the end of the hallway outside of the sanctuary. Help yourself to beverages and snacks!

NEW TO UUSF? Complete a Connections form to receive our newsletter, which includes a link to the Order of Service and Sunday Livestream. If you're at UUSF in person, you can find a yellow connections card at the welcome table in the gallery outside the sanctuary or in a pew in front of you. You can also fill it out online at <https://bit.ly/uuconnections2024>.

Welcome to the First Unitarian Universalist Society of San Francisco

1187 Franklin Street, San Francisco, CA 94109

OUR SOCIETY'S VISION

We, The First Unitarian Universalist Society of San Francisco, delight in our authentic, inclusive congregation that reaches across generations, ethnicities, and differences. We take care of one another, building spiritual community, knowing that we are stronger and accomplish more together. Guided by our responsibility to future generations, we take leadership in shaping a compassionate, sustainable world. Inspired by our courageous heritage and compelled by conscience, we hold one another accountable to work for racial, environmental, and economic justice and the dignity and rights of all.

OUR SOCIETY'S MISSION

As a vibrant, joyous, caring, inclusive community of diverse people, we create a nurturing space for spiritual growth and learning. Based on our shared values, we work together courageously and publicly for human rights, economic justice, and environmental salvation.

CONGREGATIONAL COVENANT (under construction)

In an effort to make the world a better place, we support each other's journey to seek truth with openness, curiosity and respect for different perspectives and paths.

As love is our spirit, we commit to respect, accept, listen to and support each other.

We hold ourselves and each other accountable by continually assessing our individual and community actions toward living into our covenant. This will include speaking up when someone's actions are not aligned.

We commit to be in community with openness and loving kindness, acknowledging our own biases and differing perspectives.
