

STARR KING WAY Performance Series

<https://www.uusf.org/skwps>

WAGNER & KONG

Sunday, September 22 at 1:30 pm, Sanctuary

Christoph Wagner and Joanne Kong have been praised for their impeccable ensemble and sensitive, communicative performances that convey the unique power of music.

Dr. Christoph Wagner is a renowned cellist, chamber musician, and pedagogue, with a successful career in Europe, the US, and South America. He has won numerous competitions and scholarships, including the Sviatoslav Richter Grant from Rice University. Wagner has performed at major concert halls and festivals, and has performed under renowned conductors.

Joanne Kong, a keyboardist, delivers captivating performances that showcase the vibrancy and eloquence of musical expression. Her performances have been praised for their finesse, flexibility, technical ability, and artistry. Kong is the first artist to release a harpsichord-piano recording of Bach's Goldberg and Beethoven's Diabelli Variations.

Up On Top will provide lunch for those arriving early or staying after church. We will ask a suggested donation of $20 for entry to the 80-minute concert. Visit <https://bit.ly/uusfpayments> to become a subscriber and donate to the SKWPS Arts Fund, or use your phone to scan the QR code. Enter your amounts by scrolling down to SKWPS Tickets or SKWPS/Arts Fund Donations & Subscribers.

